

Woody Yaloak Athletics Club Code of Conduct – Child Safety

All club members, volunteers and spectators of Woody Yaloak Athletics Club are responsible for the safety and wellbeing of children and young people who engage with Woody Yaloak Athletics Club. All club members, volunteers and spectators are expected to act in accordance with this Code of Conduct in their physical and online interactions with children and young people under the age of 18 years.

I will:

- Act in accordance with Woody Yaloak Athletics Club's child safety and wellbeing policies and procedures at all times.
- Behave respectfully, courteously and ethically towards children and their families and towards other staff.
- Listen and respond to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they communicate (verbally or non-verbally) that they do not feel safe or well.
- Promote the human rights, safety and wellbeing of all children in the Woody Yaloak Athletics Club.
- Demonstrate appropriate personal and professional boundaries.
- Consider and respect the diverse backgrounds and needs of children.
- Create an environment that promotes and enables children's participation and is welcoming, culturally safe and inclusive for all children and their families.
- Involve children in making decisions about activities, policies and processes that concern them wherever possible.
- Contribute, where appropriate, to Woody Yaloak Athletics Club policies, discussions, learning and reviews about child safety and wellbeing.
- Identify and mitigate risks to children's safety and wellbeing as required by Woody Yaloak Athletics Club risk assessment and management policy or process.
- Respond to any concerns or complaints of child harm or abuse promptly and in line with Woody Yaloak Athletics Club policy and procedure for receiving and responding to complaints.
- Report all suspected or disclosed child harm or abuse as required by law.
- Comply with Woody Yaloak Athletics Club policies and procedures on record keeping and information sharing.
